

hospitality design

march/april 2019 hospitalitydesign.com

An aerial photograph of a swimming pool with a wooden deck. The pool is filled with clear blue water. The deck is made of light-colored wood and features several white satellite dishes. The pool is surrounded by a wooden fence. The background is a bright blue sky.

dive in the wellness issue

HDexpo
hospitality design

products flooring

Innovative patterns provide impressive hard-surface solutions

By Matt Dougherty

1

Delicate graining and soft porcelain surfaces define Garden State Tile's Koala collection. Featuring sharp graphics that create a faux bois texture, the wood aesthetic reflects that of a eucalyptus tree. GSTILE.COM

2

Aspecta's LVT Tilt & Tones collection pairs four geometrically inspired accent tiles with a neutral palette. Combined, they create a playful motif that takes inspiration from hard-edged angles and lines, such as those created when the sun casts a shadow on outdoor surfaces. ASPECTAFLOORING.COM

3

Siland, one of five new hardwood options from DuChateau, features a deep brown hue reminiscent of rich soil, while light accents increase visual depths. They also come in the company's signature hard-wax oil finish. DUCHATEAU.COM

4

German architect Alexander Brenner designed Between, the latest high-end wood flooring collection from Listone Giordano. Brass accents are strategically placed amid planks to create an artistic pattern that reinterprets Teutonic architecture. LISTONEGIORDANO.COM