ARCHER

The Archer collection reveals all the expressive potential of porcelain stoneware in a small format, known as a “brick”, which offers great versatility, becoming a protagonist in refined interior design projects, thanks to its ability to easily recreate retro but incredibly modern and sophisticated atmospheres. ## Trendy shades for maximum creative freedom

Perfect for furnishing environments with a modern and decisive character, Archer emphasizes the tactile dimension and the authenticity of an irregular and deliberately imperfect brick. An extraordinary graphic and decorative richness with vibrant shades, made even more vivid and deep by a structure applied to the porcelain stoneware support, reinterprets the unique flavor of the "handmade", contributing to increase the feeling of movement and brightness of the whole.

Aesthetic Value and ceramic tradition

The surface of Archer is characterized by an irregular finish that makes it particularly soft and pleasant to the touch. Resistant to both stains and chemical agents, it does not require specific treatments and is easily cleanable, making it perfect for commercial and public applications. The collection is enhanced in combination with different materials for the floor, such as wood-effect porcelain stoneware, stone, or concrete-effect, becoming a naturally material background to be completed with refined furnishings with an eclectic style.
