ANTIQUE ZELLIGE

Antique Zellige

The background of the entire page is a close-up photograph of an antique Zellige mosaic. The mosaic is composed of numerous small, rectangular tiles in various shades of teal, light blue, and beige. The tiles are arranged in a complex, interlocking pattern that creates a textured, three-dimensional effect. The lighting is soft, highlighting the individual tiles and the subtle variations in their colors and shapes.

Our Antique Zellige mosaics are carefully distressed to create a patina that evokes centuries of history, bringing the charm of ancient Moroccan architecture to your space.

As with all our Zellige products, Antique Zellige is hand-cut and glazed, carrying on the tradition of Moroccan tile making.

Variation, Usage & Technical Information

Variation

Antique Zellige tiles are made entirely by hand in Morocco and each tile will be different from the next. Tiles are treated to create an aged patina, please expect the following characteristics which are intended in this product.

- Chips off the surface of the glaze exposing the clay beneath
- Terracotta exposed on the edges of the tile
- Dips in the surface of the tile
- Uneven edging of the tile
- Wide variation in color/shade between tile pieces
- Glaze pooling in areas of a tile
- Lime pops that expose the substrate of the tile
- Size and thickness variation from piece to piece

Variation between samples and tiles received is possible, as handmade techniques of glazing make shade and color variation an inherent part of the product. Samples received before shipments should be considered indicative of color only. Driftwood Design Lab will not honor any claims made for these characteristics listed above if claimed as defects.

Antique Zellige has traditionally been used in pools and fountains in Morocco. However, Zellige tiles do not meet US standards for use in pools, spas or other areas where it will be regularly submerged in water; and we do not recommend Zel for these applications.
Use of Antique Zellige in pool, spas and fountains is at the discretion of the customer and no claims for damage will be honored for Zel used in these applications, regardless of installation methods.
